

What's a Trivia Challenge?

It's your chance to win prizes and be the envy of your know-it-all peers!

The Great Humboldt Trivia Challenge is Humboldt County's premier battle of wits. This fun and hilarious evening is now a Humboldt County tradition. Create your own team of three, or sponsor a team. Registration is just $300.

As always, our silent auction and Dutch raffle give you the opportunity to take home excellent prizes, from collections of fine California wine to dinner at one of Humboldt's outstanding restaurants. Don't miss out!

Audience members can get in on the fun with our "50/50" questions. Strut your trivial stuff from the peanut gallery for a small donation, and you'll be automatically entered to split the pot at the end of the evening!

Competition not your thing? Then come out to cheer on the learned and lucky. Enjoy a delectable tri-tip buffet dinner and no-host bar.

Advance tickets are $20 / 4 for $75, $25 at the door.

What's New in 2011!

New This Year!

- Teams can compete to raise extra donations. Prize goes to the team with the highest donations!
- Teams and audience alike will compete in our first Literary Costume Contest. Will you come as Huck Finn, King Lear, or Frankenstein's Monster? You're only limited by your own imagination. A grand prize will be awarded to the evening's favorite costume, to be determined by general acclaim!

For ticket or team information, to make a donation, or to download a registration form, visit our website: www.humlit.org. You can also call us at 707-445-3655.
